I moved into Crookham Village about 20 year's ago because I wanted to move into the village and enjoy the semi rural lifestyle, and I wish for it to remain so. I love the village identity because it's separate from the adjacent towns of Fleet and Church Crookham. Most days during school term times if I'm off shift i walk the children to Dogmersfield school and we enjoy watching the wildlife amongst the fields and hedgerows along Pilcot road, my children especially love the squirrels climbing along the telephone wires amongst the trees and listening to the birds in the fields.

The gap provides a separation between Crookham Village and gives it its special identity.

Many regards Wayne
